

VIRTUAL PANEL SEMINARS
From the 4th to the 8th of October

PANEL I
STRUCTURALLY FACING THE CLIMATE CRISIS
FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF THE PEOPLES
Monday, October 4, 2021. 08:00 to 11:00 (BOL)

TOPICS

- Living well in balance and harmony with Mother Earth as a structural alternative.
- The Multiple crises of capitalism and their impact on life systems and the culture of life.
- Defense of Mother Earth through the non-commodification of nature and recognition of her rights

Moderator: Cintya Vargas Amurrio, Head of the Mother Earth and Water Department.
Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Plurinational State of Bolivia

Opening	Freddy Mamani, Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Plurinational State of Bolivia.
Ramon Pichs Madruga (CUBA)	Bachelor's Degree in Foreign Trade Economics, University of Havana. Master of Social Sciences, Lund University, Sweden. PhD in Economic Sciences, UNAM-Mexico. Director of the Centre for World Economic Research – CIEM since 2013.
Asad Rehman (United Kingdom)	Asad Rehman is the Executive Director of the radical anti-poverty and social justice organisation War on Want – that works with social movements in the global North and global South to achieve a just and safe world. Asad is a leading climate justice advocate whose work has helped to reframe the climate crisis as a crisis of neoliberal inequality, colonialism and racism. He is the co-coordinator of the Global Green New Deal Project and spokesperson for the COP26 coalition.
Sian Sullivan (United Kingdom).	Sian Sullivan is Professor of Environment and Culture at Bath Spa University, UK. She has worked closely with Indigenous communities in north-west Namibia, contributing to a recent national review of the circumstances of Indigenous and marginalised peoples for Namibia's government-appointed Ancestral Land Commission.
Vicente Paolo Yu, TWN (FILIPINAS)	Vicente Paolo B. Yu III (“Vice”) is currently a Senior Legal Adviser at the Third World Network (Malaysia), a Visiting Research Fellow at the United Nations Research Institute for Social Development (Switzerland), and an Associate Fellow at the Geneva Center for Security Policy (Switzerland).
Anisley Morejon Ramos (CUBA)	PhD in philosophical sciences and assistant researcher at the Institute of Philosophy. Coordinator of the international workshop on environment and society. Active participation in COP 24 and COP25 held in Katowice and Madrid respectively.
Questions and Answers	Moderator
Final words	Angélica Ponce, Director of the Plurinational Authority of Mother Earth, Plurinational State of Bolivia.